

Meet the best-kept secret in Hiring Events.

Jobcase has the reach, flexibility, choice and experience you need to exceed your hiring goals.

We know the story. You need to hire people – maybe a lot of people – really quickly, in multiple locations, at a reasonable cost. That takes a broad audience of workers to choose from, effective promotion to attract registrants, and convenient event options that make sure good candidates show up. Jobcase can provide all of these things and more!

Draw from a huge community of everyday workers.

Jobcase is a social media platform with more than 100 million registered members across the US. We can connect you with a broad audience of people you'd like to hire – on a national or local level.

Get what you need, when you need it – no contract required.

Our platform offers incredible flexibility to our employer partners. From large volume hiring to spur-of-the-moment openings, our technology and team are able to handle large campaigns and ad hoc projects of any size, timeframe or complexity.
